The Sto. Niño Youth Council (SNYC) is a community-based youth organization in Brgy. Concepcion, Malabon City. Being one of the longest existing youth organization in Malabon, SNYC is accredited and recognized by National Youth Commission, Local Youth Development Office, and Barangay Council of Malabon City. We advocate for children's rights through child participation.

In celebration of Halloween 2022, SNYC is conducting a fundraising activity entitled, "SNYC Horror House 2022". This event will be held on October 30, 2022, at Sto. Niño Library. This activity aims to showcase the creative talents of the youth of Sto. Niño and generate funds that will be used in future activities that promote children's rights.

In viewing this, we would like to ask for your financial assistance or anything that you can offer for the aforementioned fundraising event. Your donation will help us buy props and materials for the event. Also, this will greatly contribute to the generation of our funds and will help us to attain our objective in advocating for children's rights.

We are hoping for a positive response. Thank you very much.

The Sto. Niño Youth Council (SNYC) is a community-based youth organization in Brgy. Concepcion, Malabon City. Being one of the longest existing youth organization in Malabon, SNYC is accredited and recognized by National Youth Commission, Local Youth Development Office, and Barangay Council of Malabon City. We advocate for children's rights through child participation.

In celebration of Halloween 2022, SNYC is conducting a fundraising activity entitled, "SNYC Horror House 2022". This event will be held on October 30, 2022, at Sto. Niño Library. This activity aims to showcase the creative talents of the youth of Sto. Niño and generate funds that will be used in future activities that promote children's rights.

In viewing this, we would like to ask for your financial assistance or anything that you can offer for the aforementioned fundraising event. Your donation will help us buy props and materials for the event. Also, this will greatly contribute to the generation of our funds and will help us to attain our objective in advocating for children's rights.

We are hoping for a positive response. Thank you very much.
